

Dr Mladen Karadjoski is an Associate Professor at the Faculty of Law, University of "St. Kliment Ohridski" -Bitola, North Macedonia and an expert in public administration and European integration. Previously, Mladen was an Assistant Professor at the Faculty of administration and information systems management, University of "St. Kliment Ohridski" -Bitola, North Macedonia. He received his PhD in Public Administration at the Faculty of administration and information systems management, University of "St. Kliment Ohridski" -Bitola, North Macedonia . His research and writing has focused on the public administration, European integration, Institutions of the European Union, Public administrative cooperation in Europe, Policies of the European Union, etc. He is author of the book Public Administrative Cooperation in Europe, published at the end of 2021. Mladen is also author of around 50 scientific papers and participant in many international projects. He is member of editorial board in several international journals and member of organizational board at several international conferences. He was also a Visiting Professor for one semester at the University of Warsaw, Faculty of political sciences and journalism, through the SIGMA program.